Scary Stories to Tell in the Dark

Stranger Things meets Goosebumps!

Even on a hot summer night, there can be chills around a campfire. For Ollie Carothers and his fellow campers, the goal was simple – have the best time ever.

In the glow of the fire, stories are told, one camper to another. But are they just stories?

What snapped that branch? Is that just a shadow? What lurks beneath the surface of the swimming hole?

Could it really be ... Monsters?

Full of artwork by the author and perfect for readers 9 to 12 years old, this illustrated collection of short stories will sink its teeth into any reader and pull them through a Goonies level of monster-filled adventure!

Though the stories are bit long to be shared out loud, they're perfect for hiding in your sleeping bag with a flashlight at summer camp.

Are you ready to find out what's lurking in the shadows?

About the Author

Donovan Scherer is an author and illustrator creating worlds of adventure with a sense of humor and a little bit of dread that everything will go terribly, terribly wrong.

In 2009, he published his first middle-grade illustrated novels. Along with developing more of his own series across books, comics, video games, and animation, he also works with independent authors to help bring their stories to life.

In 2019, he opened Studio Moonfall in downtown Kenosha, Wisconsin – an art studio and brick'n'mortar bookstore featuring his endlessly increasing body of work and highlighting other local and independent authors and artists.
